

From the Desk of Pastor Olsen: Joyful Ordinations

In the period of less than a week, I had the distinct pleasure of attending two ordinations and installations: one in Southern Illinois for our fieldworker now Pastor Gunnar Campbell and a local ordination at Southwest Lutheran for Pastor Soe Moe serving as mission pastor. While both were blessed events, both were different.

Pastor Campbell was installed in a small farming community church serving what is left of a town that has suffered numerous floods over the years, because of the proximity to the Mississippi River. Being within only a few hours of both his home congregation and his vicarage congregation, many joined from these churches to rejoice and take part in the blessed gift of a new pastor to serve as under shepherd. As you would expect, once ordained, and installed, Pastor Campbell proceeded to chant the rest of the service, as he is well gifted. The people in that little town of Jacob, Illinois are blessed to have him as their pastor and they were very excited to have him lead them faithfully.

Fast forward from Sunday afternoon, July 16, to Saturday afternoon, July 22, and we were under a tent in front of Southwest Lutheran as the pastors gathered preparing to process into the service. As Pastor Soe Moe is the first ordained pastor to the Karen (not pronounced the same as the name) people, there was much joy as many, many people from the Karen community gathered with the members of Southwest Lutheran to rejoice in this moment as one people of God.

The ordination and installation took a bit longer as Rev. Dr. Richard Stuckwisch, our District President who presided, spoke a few lines then the translator spoke in Karen, since there were many there who did not speak English. We sang "What a friend we have in Jesus," verse by verse first in English and then the Karen language. Singing together, coming together, two languages, two different cultures but one unified people under Christ Jesus. It reminded me of the words from Revelation which speaks of those who will gather from every tribe, language and nation.

Two different congregations. Two different places. Two different languages. Two different pastors. But one common confession of faith in Christ Jesus. One common faith in the holy word of Scripture and confession to those symbols we hold as a true exposition of Scripture, The Book of Concord. It gave me pause, not just once but twice in one week, to remember the precious gift that I have been given in serving you and this congregation. It is a task which I pray I fulfill with faithfulness and humility, not as one who lords over, but one who serves willingly.

2 Cor. 3:4-5, “Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God,” The confidence in our place before God comes not from our own doing or our own works, but from God Himself, who has created, redeemed and sanctified. It is only through His grace and mercy poured out through His very Son Jesus Christ that we are made holy through His work, His work done in love. May our work together also be done in love to the glory of Christ Jesus and sincere love for our neighbor.

In His Service and Yours,
Pastor Olsen

Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday Morning

Adult Bible Study

Done in Love – 1 Cor. 16:14
Sunday Morning Adult Bible Class
Beginning August 20

Hidden away at the end of St. Paul’s first letter to the church in Corinth is this little verse that often gets passed over in his final message. “<sup>14</sup> Let all that you do be done in love.” (1Co 16:14 ESV) For a number of weeks, or more knowing Emmaus, we will be unpacking this truth about what is done in love. Certainly if we were not sinners, if we didn’t have that Old Adam gnawing away at us all the time, as well as the influences of the world and the temptations of the devil, it would be easy. But it is not. Join us as we explore how God’s Word defines love, what it looks like first from God and then towards our neighbor. We will search the Scriptures readjusting and reorienting ourselves to see what love is through the lens of the most precious gift of love: the life, death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. “<sup>9</sup>In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.” (1Jo 4:9-11 ESV)

Emmaus Leadership Summit 2023

Saturday August 26, 2022      9 am – Noon

Let all that you do be done in love.

(1Co 16:14 ESV)

At this years' annual Leadership Summit, which gathers Church Council members, Board members, all teachers, department heads and full time staff from Church, School and Pre-school, we will be exploring what it means as Emmaus Lutheran to do everything in love. We begin with an opening devotion, move to a main Bible Study teaching and then have breakouts with the various groups to begin planning, taking what we have learned from belief to practice. This time affords us the opportunity to grow not only as a people at Emmaus but as brothers and sisters in Christ tasked with ultimately confessing Jesus Christ in all we say and do. No RSVP is needed since all are expected to attend. We look forward to this event so that we may grow in our love toward one another and rejoice in the love that God has for us.

ATTENTION ALL BOARDS AND GROUPS OF EMMAUS!

** VERY IMPORTANT ****

On Sunday, September 26, we will have a Ministry Expo during the Bible Class hour. Every ministry, board and group will have a display area to show what your ministry does and how it confesses Christ. It will give people in our church not only a chance to see what you do, but how they can become involved. We are also contacting groups within the community that we work with, such as Concordia High School, Lutheran Life Villages, and others, to have a display showing how our congregation partners with the community to spread the Gospel and help those in need.

Each board and group will have use of half of an eight foot table area reserved. If you desire/need more space, more please inform the office. It is up to your group to decide how and what you will do with your area. Tell your story. Decorate it. Pictures. Posters. Flowers. Lights, computers, videos, do whatever you wish to highlight your ministry. Let's show our congregation what we do and how they can get involved.

Go ... Sell All You Have?

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?” asked the rich young ruler. Jesus said, “You know the commandments.” And he replied, “All these I have kept from my youth.” And Jesus said to him, “One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me” (Luke 18:18–22).

When we hear this story, this question comes to mind: is Jesus speaking to us also, or only to the rich young ruler? In other words, is Jesus telling us to sell all that we have and give it to the poor?

As good Lutherans, we answer, “No!” But why? Why should we not sell all that we have and distribute it to the poor? The simplest explanation is this: if we sold everything we have, our wife and our children would be neglected. In other words, to sell everything we have and give it to the poor would ignore, even abandon, those whom God has placed in our care. Our money, every-thing we have, is not to be used solely for the church. But that doesn’t excuse us from using our money for the purpose God intends.

Everyone has three stations in life, three spheres in which we live and are to be of service to our neighbors. These stations are the church, the family and society. We are members of all three of these by birth. We are born into the church by water and the Word of God, and our duties to oth-ers in the church arise from our Baptism into the church. We are born into a family, and our du-ties to others stem from our birth into that family. Finally, we are born into society, which is simply a further extension of our birth into our family. The duties we have toward other mem-bers of society come from either our own birth or the birth of others into the same society.

All that we have and all that we are ought to be pressed into service for the church, the family and society. If we were to sell all we have and give only to one, the other two would be neglected, and we would falter in fulfilling our duties.

So, consider your life and all that you have in light of these three stations. You pay taxes to sup-port and help those in society. You save for college for your children, and provide food, clothing and shelter for the members of your family.

But the station that is usually thought of last is the church. Since the needs of the family and so-ciety are more immediate, the church is often given what is left over. This is not how it should be. Rather, we are to give of our first fruits, from off the top, the best, even as Abel gave the best of his flock.

This requires forethought. It means that you sit down and make a plan of what you will give from the beginning. It means sticking to it even when it seems that there are other more immediate and pressing things.

And this is all the more necessary now as we enter into periods of time where giving is low due to high unemployment or where restrictions on meeting in church limit opportunities to give. If we love God and His gifts of forgiveness given through the means of grace, which we receive at church and only at church, then we will support it, just as we love our country and our family. For all that we have and all that we are is given to us by our gracious God. He spared no expense for us and our salvation. He gave up His Son to death so that our sins are forgiven, and we will live. What’s more, He provides for all that we need for this body and life. And our lives in this world, among these three spheres of church, family and society are to mirror the generosity of the one who gave us life in all three at birth.

Don’t let the church, your divine family, be an afterthought or even ignored. It is nurturing you, bringing you up in salvation through Word and Sacrament.
